MEXICO CITY. Sept. 20.—Despite nditions popularly regarded in the lited States as uninviting to American trade expansion here, business been that country and Mexico shows decided upward trend.

During the fiscal year just closed ports and exports between the two publics amounted to more than 531, 0,000 pesos, according to figures wen the Associated Press by W. F. unders, secretary of 'P American amber of Commerce in Aexico City, Of this amount 376,000,000 pesos repsents exports from Mexico and 164,000,000 pesos represents imports. Presus to the current fiscal year, the nner period of Mexican-United ates business was in 1911, when 102, 0,000 pesos, worth were imported.

Trade 1s increasing.

"Deducting amounts representing troleum exportations, which are not said turned, but they were considered jokes. You can't turn a suit. You'd have all of the button holes on the wrong side or you would have to sew them up and make new ones, and you'd not only be out the price of a new suit to have no id one fixed up, but you would till have an old suit."

"Why couldn't a wife turn a man's watch?" he came back.

"Why not let her make him a watch?" he came back.

nat Fade is increasing, said ders, "Mexico will spend more 0,000,000 in the United States he year 1919, with imports of , machinery, drugs and dry ading all others. During the f August we received more letters from firms who intintentions of establishing here.

Florida Citizens Send Protest to Mem-bers of Congress Against Equipment Obtained.

Hy Associated Press 1

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 20.—H. H. Merrick, of Chicago, president of the Mississippi Valley Association, denumeed strikes in his address here yesterday before the meeting of zone number one and referred to the present threat of a strike by local long-shoremen as "tyranny on the part of a few longshoremen who want shorter hours and more pay."

Delegates from most Southern States attended the meeting. He referred to labor leaders as being "drunk with power" and said when they fought a town "they cut their own throats."

"They call themselves the American Federation of Labor," he said, in speaking of participants in some strikes, "but I want to know if it is possible for 2,500,000 to stop 190,000,000 people from moving the wheels of machinery in this counfry?"

"The government has an appropriation of $250,000 for a site and buildings and in the guil some eight miles from an island, is the choice of the Public Health Service.

Word from Senator Fletcher is to the effect that the colony would not be a strikes, "but I want to know if it is possible for 2,500,000 to stop 190,000,000 people here are determined in their opposition, the colony will be located elsewhere.
